What is the Coventry Open?

An 'Open' is an exhibition in a gallery where the local communities can enter their work; it does not matter what your previous art experience is

In Coventry, the Open is shown at the Herbert Art Gallery & Museum

It is held every two years

This is a free-to-enter competition with prizes

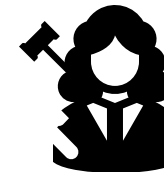

You can sell your work commission-free if you choose

There are two artist categories to enter work in:

1. Young artists aged 15-18 years
2. 19 and over

This is where you will find it online:

www.theherbert.org

There is a panel of three independent judges that will choose what work is placed in the exhibition

Rules

There is a long list of rules on the Herbert Art Gallery & Museum's website for you to look at. However, the key things to know are:

2D work cannot be bigger than 2m in any direction, this includes the frame

3D work must be able to be carried by one person and not be bigger by 1.5m in any direction

Films should not be longer than 10 minutes running time

Work submitted must be made by you and be original

Every piece must have been made after April 2023

The Coventry Open 2025 will not exhibit anything unsafe or that which is considered Hate Speech.

There are separate buttons for each of the Open's categories:

- Young Artists 15-18 years
- Adult

make sure you enter your work in the right category.

You will need a tape measure and a camera. Mobile phone photographs are fine. You will need to add the size of your work in centimeters and upload clear images to give you the best chance of being selected.

Follow the questions through the application process and answer them as best as you can

You will be asked about your piece. Write a few sentences to describe it. The following questions might help:

- Why did you make it?
- How did you create it?
- How does it make you feel?

What happens next

The panel of three independent judges will choose which work is placed in the exhibition

Not all work will be chosen

There are two rounds of selection:

1. Online
2. Drop off your work at the Herbert Art Gallery & Museum

Successful pieces are exhibited, unsuccessful pieces are asked to be collected by the artist

Upload your work by midnight
